Discussion

The Pro's Edge is the ultimate supplement for honing in brain power and sharpening focus. The potent compounds combined here are formidable opponents to brain fog, anxiety, and ADHD. DMAE is an amino acid crucial for proper nerve conduction and signal functioning in the brain and in the rest of the nervous system. This, along with the rest of the extracts and vitamins in The Pro's Edge are helpful in treating:

- Attention deficit hyperactivity disorder (ADHD)
- Boosting memory and brain power
- Symptoms of Alzheimer's disease & dementia
- Reducing anxiety & depression
- Alleviating complications from schizophrenic anti-psychotic drugs
- Boosting athletic performance by speeding up reaction times
- Relieving symptoms of autism
- Slowing body's production of arachidonic acid to slow signs of aging
